

Texas Equine Foundation

Scholarships of the
Texas Equine Veterinary Association Foundation
And
Texas Equine Veterinary Association

Texas Equine Veterinary Association Foundation

Equitarian Scholarship Application

Amount: $1,500

Deadline: January 31st

Awards Announced: On or prior to March 1

Selection Committee for this award: TEVA Foundation Board of Directors

Number awarded annually: TEVAF will be awarding up to 4 scholarships for attendance of the Texas Equitarian Workshop, an 8 Day Trip

Eligibility will be based on:

- Being 3rd or 4th year in veterinary school or any practicing veterinarian
- Being an active member of TEVA (dues can accompany application) and;
- Completion of application
- Must be a resident of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas or Louisiana
- Ability to attend the Summer CE Symposium in the year awarded.

The Texas Equitarian Project will consist of philanthropic work on equids in rural Guatemala in conjunction with local veterinarians. A passport is required. Air and in country travel, meals and accommodations can be covered by the $1,500 scholarship. A petition for scholarship expansion is considered on a case by case basis to cover rises in flight costs, etc. Additional spending money is the student's responsibility.

1) The descriptors for consideration:

- a. Leadership
- b. Extracurricular activities
- c. Promotion of equine welfare
- d. Dedication to a future career in equine practice
- e. Will you be able to attend the Summer CE Symposium in the year awarded?

2) Application Considerations

- a. Write a letter (limit 2 Pages) stating why you believe you deserve the scholarship. You should discuss both your personal and professional accomplishments and your future goals, particularly as they relate to equine veterinary medicine and include any information in regard to descriptors above that are not included in CV. The application should also feature any charitable or philanthropic activities you have participated in.
- b. CV
- c. One letter of reference.

Note: Students who supply photos and a recap of their experience, will be considered for future TEVA scholarships as well.*

Students that receive the Equitarian Scholarship, will not be eligible for the Equine Experience Scholarship in the same year.

Application Process:

Opportunities open - Apply Now

Announcement via telephone/email

Submit to:

Blaine Fisher

PO Box 11779

El Dorado, AR 71730

or

blaine@texasequineva.com

Texas Equine Veterinary Association Foundation

Equine Experience Scholarship Application

Equine experience scholarships are available for externships, domestic equine health related projects, creative learning opportunities, continuing education, or anything that will further your Equine-focused education.

Amount: $500

Number awarded annually: TBD

Deadline for Application: September 30 for Fall Scholarships; February 1 for Spring Scholarships

Awards Announced: October 10 and February 15

Selection Committee for this award: TEVA Foundation Board of Directors

Eligibility will be based on:

- Must be currently attending the veterinary school at Texas A&M University, Oklahoma State University, Louisiana State University, or Texas Tech University
- Preference will be given to 3rd or 4th year students, but open to all current CVM students
- Being an active member of TEVA (dues can accompany completed application)
- Ability to attend the Summer CE Symposium in the year awarded.

Application:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

What School are you going to? _____

What year are you? _____

Will you be able to attend the Summer CE Symposium in the year awarded? _____

What do you plan to do with this scholarship? (Limit of 2 pages, written)

Winners of this award will be required to submit a written summary of their experience upon completion.

Note: Students who supply photos and a recap of their experience, will be considered for future TEVA scholarships as well.*

Students that receive the Equine Experience Scholarship, will not be eligible for the Equitarian Scholarship in the same year.

Application Process:

Opportunities open - Apply Now

Submit to:

Blaine Fisher

PO Box 11779

El Dorado, AR 71730

or

blaine@texasequineva.com

Texas Equine Veterinary Association

Endowed Scholarships

We have endowed scholarships currently available at Texas A&M University College of Veterinary Medicine, Oklahoma State University and Louisiana State University. Applications must apply through their respective school's scholarship system to be eligible. The TEVA Board of Directors has no input on recipients of this scholarship.